Participate in professional growth activities such as classes, workshops, conferences, school and District curriculum committees, and school-community activities (such as advisory committees, PTA, youth organizations).